

#16

Brian McKeown
3-18-08

L/A is Where Things Happen

I feel that Lewiston and Auburn have been growing closer and closer together as a community, while we have been remodeling some of our buildings, we are very fortunate and have a lot to offer for activities. I believe when you really want something badly you should go for it, and in this case you have nothing to lose you can join a sport, not get laughed at and everything. What I see as a big improvement is our arts as a community, and that is another way to draw a crowd.

So I mention the arts because some people don't realize the importance of it either. This will be my 8th year going through a type of great art work, either through singing, playing an instrument, or drama too. I feel like we have opportunities to go see shows at the Franco center, the community band, which plays near the waterfall in auburn, Colisse has comedies, circuses, and a lot too. Another big great thing it may be just dj's or some people work hard and perform for Independence Day and the balloon festival too. There's even art work at Bates College, and what I love about it is, it's like a museum that's free and has great art exhibit.

When you feel stressed or need something to do music can help or relaxing and enjoying our environment and it's all about making friends too. I know how important a job is and everything, but I think this will help with life skills too. Not only is this fun, but you can get recognized for achievement too. Even though the schools are having a hard time growing, I and

